EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF STAKEHOLDERS FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM (AY 2025–26)

As part of the institution's continuous quality assurance process, feedback on the curriculum was collected from key stakeholders, namely Students, Faculty, Alumni, Parents, and Employers during the Academic Year 2025–26. The objective of the feedback mechanism was to assess the relevance, effectiveness, industry orientation, and overall quality of the curriculum in meeting the expectations of learners and other stakeholders.

The feedback was collected through structured questionnaires based on a five-point rating scale. The responses were analysed using the weighted average method, wherein the total score obtained was compared against the maximum obtainable score and expressed as a percentage.

The analysis revealed positive perceptions across all stakeholder groups. Faculty members recorded a satisfaction score of 85.98%, reflecting their confidence in the curriculum's ability to support academic and professional development. Alumni feedback indicated a satisfaction level of 85.10%, highlighting the curriculum's contribution towards employability, career orientation, and application of knowledge. Student feedback recorded 83.02%, demonstrating overall satisfaction with curriculum delivery, relevance, evaluation practices, and opportunities for higher learning. Employers rated the curriculum at 81.88%, indicating that graduates possess relevant knowledge and skills aligned with industry expectations. Parents' feedback recorded 79.75%, reflecting appreciation for curriculum relevance, technology integration, and curriculum enrichment activities.

The consolidated analysis yielded an overall stakeholder satisfaction score of 83.15%, indicating that the curriculum effectively addresses academic requirements, skill development, employability needs, and holistic student growth. Stakeholders particularly appreciated the curriculum's relevance, interdisciplinary learning opportunities, research orientation, career preparedness, and academic support mechanisms.

Based on the feedback received, the institution will continue to strengthen industry-academia collaboration, promote experiential and skill-based learning, enhance technology-enabled teaching practices, and encourage curriculum enrichment initiatives to further improve learner outcomes and stakeholder satisfaction.

Overall Curriculum Satisfaction Score: 83.15%

Suggestions

- "The change of lecturer made it slightly difficult for students to follow the topic. The lecturer's subject knowledge appeared moderate, which affected our understanding to some extent.
- " To conduct C programming classes by running the code practically in the same application that we use. While notes are helpful, seeing the code executed in class will make it easier to understand concepts and learn debugging. A balance of notes with LIVE CODING IN THE CLASS will improve our learning experience.

Suggestions

- Multiple responses explicitly requested for Vishwas Sir to return for VAP classes.
- More informative and interesting classes
- Required a little more tactics to be taught for the aptitude questions to be solved quickly without consuming much time, but we were taught same methods in few topics which was taking time for us to solve.
